Subject:-The Tables to be compiled at this Census.

SIR,

I have the honour to enclose herewith for the perusal of Government a copy of the printed instructions(to be kindly returned) in regard to the tables to be published in the 1931 Census received from the Census Commissioner for India.

2. Tables I to IX, XI, XIV and XVII to XXVI, and Provincial tables I and II are compiled for all provinces and for India as a whole. These tables will therefore all be compiled for the State also.

3. Tables X, XII, XIII, XV and XVI are optional and will not be compiled for India as a whole. Table X shows infirmities by selected castes and corresponds to Table XII(A) of the last Census. There seems to be no particular object in classifying infirm persons by their castes This table may therefore be omitted. Table XII shows occupations subsidiary to Agriculture and will present statistics of some value regarding agriculturists. It may be compiled. Tables XIII and XVI show combined occupations and occupation by religion and correspond to tables XIX and XX of the last Census. These tables were not compiled at the last Census. They may be omitted this time also. Table XV shows occupation of selected castes. It corresponds to table XXI compiled at th last Census. It is based on the assumption that each caste has a traditional occupation and that the people of the caste who do not follow that occupation are deviating from a normal condition. I doubt if the statistics presented are of much value - the more particularly as no traditional occupation is shown for Mahommedans, Christians,

Christians, Jains or Animists. This table may therefore be omitted.

4. I request that approval of Government may kindly be obtained to the compilation of all the tables mentioned in para 2 above as compiled for the whole of India and of table XII of those mentioned in para 3, and the non-compilation of the optional tables X, XIII, XV, and XVI for the State at this Census.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

M. Venkatesalyengar

Census Superintendent.
